Whether you're an experienced paddler or a curious novice, this curated program offers something for all. Navigate the gentle currents of Buffalo Bayou, meander through the serene landscapes of White Oak Bayou, or explore the tranquil waters of Braes Bayou. With each stroke of your paddle, you'll discover hidden coves, encounter playful wildlife, and immerse yourself in the tranquility of nature.

Buffalo Bayou: A River of History, Culture, and Recreation

Buffalo Bayou, the heart of Houston's waterway system, winds its way through the city, offering a unique blend of history, culture, and outdoor recreation. As you paddle along its calm waters, you'll be greeted by majestic skyscrapers, historic landmarks, and vibrant parks.

Take a break at the scenic Buffalo Bayou Park, where you can explore its lush trails, admire public art installations, or simply relax and soak up the vibrant atmosphere. Don't miss the iconic Waugh Drive Bridge, a pedestrian and cyclist bridge that transforms into a vibrant gathering spot in the evenings.

White Oak Bayou: A Tranquil Haven for Nature Lovers

Escape the city's hustle and bustle and find solace in the tranquil embrace of White Oak Bayou. This meandering waterway offers a serene paddling experience, surrounded by lush greenery and abundant wildlife. Keep your eyes peeled for playful otters, soaring birds, and the occasional deer grazing on the banks.

Disembark at the White Oak Bayou Greenway Trail, a 6-mile paved trail that runs alongside the bayou. Stroll, bike, or rollerblade along the trail, enjoying the picturesque views and the serenity of nature.

Braes Bayou: A Hidden Gem for Paddling and Exploration

Discover the hidden gem of Houston's waterways – Braes Bayou. This lesser-known bayou offers a secluded paddling experience, where you can immerse yourself in nature's embrace. Glide through narrow channels, explore dense vegetation, and encounter the abundant wildlife that calls this bayou home.

Venture off the beaten path and explore the Braes Bayou Trail, a 3.5-mile paved trail that follows the bayou's edge. Enjoy a leisurely walk, bike ride, or run, soaking up the peaceful surroundings and the beauty of nature.

The Meadows Center: Your Gateway to Houston's Waterways

The Meadows Center, a renowned non-profit organization, is the driving force behind the Canoeing and Kayaking Houston Waterways River program. With a mission to connect people with nature through outdoor recreation and education, The Meadows Center provides a welcoming and inclusive environment for all.
