But before you pack your bags, there are a few things you should know. That's where this Un-Tourist Guide comes in. We'll give you the inside scoop on everything you need to know about moving to Charlotte, from the best neighborhoods to live in to the best places to eat, drink, and explore.

The Best Neighborhoods to Live In

Charlotte is a big city, with a lot of different neighborhoods to choose from. So how do you know which one is right for you? Here's a breakdown of some of the most popular neighborhoods:

- Uptown: Uptown is the heart of Charlotte, and it's where you'll find the city's best restaurants, bars, and shops. It's also home to the NASCAR Hall of Fame and the Levine Museum of the New South.
- South End: South End is a trendy neighborhood with a mix of old and new buildings. It's home to the Charlotte Rail Trail, the Levine Museum of the New South, and the McColl Center for Art + Innovation.
- NoDa: NoDa is an artsy neighborhood with a bohemian vibe. It's home to the NoDa Brewing Company, the Neighborhood Theatre, and the Charlotte Art Walk.
- Plaza Midwood: Plaza Midwood is a charming neighborhood with a small-town feel. It's home to the Midwood Smokehouse, the Snug Harbor, and the Park Road Shopping Center.
- Dilworth: Dilworth is a historic neighborhood with beautiful homes and tree-lined streets. It's home to the Dilworth Artisan Station, the Carolinas Aviation Museum, and the Mint Museum Randolph.

The Best Places to Eat

Charlotte has a diverse culinary scene, with everything from fine dining to casual eateries. Here are a few of our favorite spots:

- The Fig Tree Restaurant: The Fig Tree is a fine dining restaurant that serves seasonal American cuisine. The menu changes frequently, but you can always expect to find something delicious.
- Haberdish: Haberdish is a casual eatery that serves Southern comfort food with a twist. The menu features dishes like fried chicken, macaroni and cheese, and collard greens.

- The Liberty: The Liberty is a lively restaurant that serves American fare with a global twist. The menu features dishes like burgers, tacos, and pasta.
- Barcelona Wine Bar: Barcelona Wine Bar is a tapas bar that serves Spanish-inspired dishes. The menu features dishes like patatas bravas, croquetas, and paella.
- The Optimist: The Optimist is a seafood restaurant that serves fresh, sustainable seafood. The menu features dishes like oysters, shrimp, and fish.

The Best Places to Drink

Charlotte has a thriving nightlife scene, with a wide variety of bars and clubs to choose from. Here are a few of our favorite spots:

- The Thirsty Beaver: The Thirsty Beaver is a dive bar that serves cheap beer and live music. It's a great place to go for a casual night out.
- The Craft: The Craft is a beer bar that serves a wide variety of craft beers on tap. It's a great place to go for a beer tasting or to watch a game.
- The Gin Mill: The Gin Mill is a speakeasy-style bar that serves classic cocktails. It's a great place to go for a romantic night out or to celebrate a special occasion.
- The Rabbit Hole: The Rabbit Hole is a cocktail bar that serves innovative cocktails in a cozy atmosphere. It's a great place to go for a night out with friends.

- The Prohibition: The Prohibition is a rooftop bar that serves cocktails and small plates. It's a great place to go for a night out with friends or to watch the sunset.

The Best Things to Do

Charlotte has a lot to offer visitors, from world-class museums to beautiful parks. Here are a few of our favorite things to do:

- Visit the NASCAR Hall of Fame: The NASCAR Hall of Fame is a museum that celebrates the history of NASCAR racing. The museum features interactive exhibits, race cars, and memorabilia.
- Explore the Levine Museum of the New South: The Levine Museum of the New South is a museum that tells the story of the South since the Civil War. The museum features exhibits on topics like the Civil Rights Movement, the Great Depression, and the rise of the New South.
- Walk the Charlotte Rail Trail: The Charlotte Rail Trail is a 7-mile paved trail that runs through the heart of Charlotte. The trail is a great place to go for a walk, run, or bike ride.
- Visit the Daniel Stowe Botanical Garden: The Daniel Stowe Botanical Garden is a 300-acre botanical garden that features a variety of gardens, including a Japanese garden, a rose garden, and a tropical garden. The garden is a great place to go for a walk, relax, and enjoy the beauty of nature.
- Attend a Charlotte Knights Baseball Game: The Charlotte Knights are a Minor League Baseball team that plays at Truist Field in Uptown

Charlotte. The Knights are a great way to experience the excitement of baseball without the big crowds.

Moving to Charlotte

If you're thinking about moving to Charlotte, there are a few things you should do to prepare. First, you'll need to find a place to live. There are a variety of apartments, houses, and townhomes for rent and sale in Charlotte. Once you've found a place to live, you'll need to set up your utilities and get your driver's license. You can also get a Charlotte Area Transit Pass (CATS) to use public transportation.

Charlotte is a great place to live, work, and play. It's a city with something to offer everyone, from its thriving arts and culture scene to its diverse culinary options. So if you're looking for a new city to call home, Charlotte is the perfect place for you.
