But beyond the intense competition, roller derby fosters a unique bond among its participants. The sisterhood between these women is unbreakable, as they support and empower each other both on and off the track.

Unveiling the Real Stories Behind the Ink

'Rollergirl' isn't just about the spectacular performances on the track; it delves into the personal stories of these fierce competitors.

Meet 'Annie the Axle,' a single mother who finds solace and strength on the rink. Learn about 'Bruise Maven,' a former ballerina who embraced the physicality of roller derby. And be inspired by 'Scare Crow,' a survivor of domestic abuse who found healing and triumph in this empowering sport.

A Riveting Account of Sports and Sisterhood

With vivid prose and an insider's perspective, 'Rollergirl' captures the essence of this dynamic sport. Author Vanessa Veselka, a former roller derby skater herself, brings an authenticity to these stories that only someone with a deep understanding of the sport can provide.

Whether you're an avid roller derby fan or simply curious about the human spirit, 'Rollergirl' is an engaging and unforgettable read. It showcases the power of perseverance, the transformative nature of sports, and the enduring bonds of sisterhood.
