Founded in 1889 and 1890, respectively, the SAR and DAR are lineage societies that unite descendants of those who fought in the American Revolutionary War. Their members proudly trace their lineage back to individuals who played pivotal roles in securing American independence.

Preserving the Past, Shaping the Future

The SAR and DAR are not mere repositories of historical relics. They are living, breathing organizations actively engaged in preserving and promoting American history.

Their members volunteer countless hours at museums, historical sites, and schools, sharing stories and artifacts that bring the past to life. They work tirelessly to identify and document Revolutionary War veterans, ensuring their sacrifices are never forgotten.

Educational Excellence and Youth Engagement

Education is at the heart of the SAR and DAR's mission. They offer a wide range of programs and scholarships to foster a love of history in young people.

The SAR's Junior ROTC program instills leadership, discipline, and patriotism in high school students across the country. The DAR's Junior American Citizens program introduces elementary and middle school students to the principles of good citizenship.

A Tapestry of Distinguished Lineages

Membership in the SAR and DAR is not simply a matter of lineage. It is a testament to the contributions that ancestors made to the American cause.

Over the centuries, members of these societies have included presidents, generals, judges, and countless other leaders who have shaped the course of American history.

Join the Legacy, Embrace the Spirit

If you are a descendant of a Revolutionary War veteran, we invite you to join the ranks of the Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution. Together, we can continue the legacy of preserving our nation's history and inspiring future generations of Americans.
