Welcome to Seaside Prep, a prestigious boarding school where the pursuit of excellence extends beyond the classroom and onto the ice rink. But beneath the veneer of academic achievement and athletic prowess lies a dark secret.

When star hockey player Brad "Bulldog" Evans is found brutally murdered, the school is thrown into chaos. As the investigation unfolds, suspicion falls on a host of suspects, including teammates, rivals, and even the school's enigmatic faculty.

Enter Detective Emily Carter, a seasoned investigator who arrives at Seaside Prep determined to uncover the truth behind Bulldog's untimely demise. With her sharp wit and unwavering determination, Emily meticulously dissects the clues, delving into the hidden lives and motivations of those connected to the victim.

A Suspect Pool as Vast as the Ocean

As Emily's investigation deepens, she encounters a diverse cast of characters, each with their own secrets and agendas. There's Bulldog's bitter rival, Jake "The Enforcer" Walsh, who harbors a deep-seated grudge against the slain player.

There's also the mysterious and alluring headmaster's daughter, Anya Petrova, who seems to have been intimately involved with Bulldog. And let's not forget the enigmatic hockey coach, Mike "Iron Mike" Kovacs, whose stoic demeanor hides a troubled past.

The Truth Hidden Under Layers of Ice

As Emily digs deeper, she uncovers a web of deceit, betrayal, and long-buried secrets. The residents of Seaside Prep have something to hide, and they'll stop at nothing to keep their secrets safe.

But Emily is not one to back down from a challenge. With the help of a few trusted allies, she peels back the layers of deception, exposing the shocking truth that lies beneath the pristine façade of Seaside Prep.
